The scholarship is applied to PharmD program tuition only.

Expendable and Endowed Scholarships

The College of Pharmacy is grateful for the financial assistance that it can provide to students each academic year. The generosity of donations made by alumni and friends of the College make this possible. Expendable and endowed scholarship awards are typically made to students enrolled full-time in the second-, third-, or fourth-professional year of the Doctor of Pharmacy program who meet or exceed eligibility criteria. The scholarships are typically not merit-based awards and they are applied to tuition only. If another scholarship source pays full tuition, the expendable and/or endowed award is canceled. Expendable and endowed scholarship selections are application based and they are made by the College's Honors, Awards, and Scholarships Committee. Scholarships are awarded for a total of 2 semesters (one academic year) and are not available for summer semesters. Scholarship amounts vary.
